For Multi-Platinum Artist LONESTAR- THE FUTURE IS NOW.

LONESTAR is leading the way as the next generation artist, by putting themselves in the drivers seat and taking complete control of their careers and how they market themselves.

During a time when the music industry is seeking direction LONESTAR has found theirs, with their new single at radio "LET ME LOVE YOU". LONESTAR feels more like a band than ever, with new lead singer Cody Collins and not to mention 15 years of proven success in sales and touring with over 10 million albums sold, roots they will never forget,

The Mantra of LONESTAR Today :

BETTER ACCESS. BETTER COMMUNICATION. BETTER RESULTS.

LONESTAR is taking full advantage of the internet, mobile technology, social networking sites and participating in direct feedback with fans. The band's musical legacy is tied to modern-day classics like "Amazed," "I'm Already There," and "My Front Porch Looking In," LONESTAR understands what it takes to be successful and how to manage that success, they demonstrated that leadership when their long time front man left to pursue his own career. LONESTAR has rebounded and adapted to change in their careers and had more focus than ever when searching for a new lead singer. Keech, Dean, and Michael were united in their goal of keeping LONESTAR together and continuing to work together to make new music. To this end, they listened to countless CDs and, yes, MySpace page songs, as well as making phone calls and basically brainstorming for ideas for their lead vocalist replacement. This search led to a young man from Florida who Dean had seen singing in a bar called "Cowboys" in Kennesaw, GA. To that end, Cody Collins brings to LONESTAR a perfect complement to the bands current musical dynamic, Cody's vocal ability has audiences across the United States saying, LONESTAR is better than ever. In asking founding member, Dean Sams what the future means? Sams says " We feel like we have the opportunity that few bands ever get, we've sold millions of records, have had 10 #1 hits, and now we have the chance to take control of our careers and do it all over again."

Today LONESTAR is Cody Collins, Dean Sams, Michael Britt & Keech Rainwater and for LONESTAR – THE FUTURE IS NOW!!
